	On Saturday last, the Lord Provost and Magistrates of this city went in a body to Newhaven, to thank the fisherfolk of that place, in the name of the community of Edinburgh, for the cheerful, prompt, and brave manner in which they tendered their services to their country, by repairing on board the gun-boats on the first appearance of danger, (on the late alarm of a hostile fleet being on the coast,) to repel the enemies of Britain. The Lord Provost delivered a suitable and appropriate address, expressive of the high sense universally entertained of the spirit and alacrity with which they leapt forward in defence of their King and country; and observed, that, when he considered the decent, orderly, and respectable appearance they made as the direct result of industry and good behaviour, he also considered it as a pledge to the public of their readiness, on every future occasion, to risk their lives in defence of all that is dear to us. A plentiful repast was provided for them, and they testified their gratitude by repeated cheers. 	We are highly indebted to Sir J. B. WARREN for breaking the etiquette which is always observed on such occasions, that of not opening instructions addressed to another officer. 	The Fox cutter (No. 3) Lieutenant Welsh Commander, arrived here yesterday, brings account, that on yesterday eight days, about two o'clock in the morning, being off Sligo Bay, they deserted a brig to leeward, which with her night-glares they discovered to be an armed vessel. She immediately commenced firing, and gave chase to the Fox, who made directly for the inner part of the Bay, and at day-light discovered cutter, in company with the brig and four frigates, anchored in Killala, and one of them joined in the chase. The Fox made the best of her way for Sligo Bay, and got out of reach of the enemy. The frigates afterwards came to anchor in Killala Bay, where they remained all day; but they must have got under way in the course of the night; as on Sunday morning they were not there. Lieutenant WELSH then went on shore, and sent off dispatches to the Irish Government, giving an account of the enemy's force; and about two o'clock again put to sea, to endeavour to fall in with them, to watch their motions. About five in the afternoon, fell in with them off the Stays of Broadhaven, and all that night kept plying to windward, in order to keep clear of them till morning, keeping up a constant and heavy cannonade, to alarm any of our squadrons that might be near; but it blowing very hard, and a hollow sea running, the Fox lost her bowspit, and was obliged to bear away for this port. About five days before the Fox fell in with the enemy, the parted company with the Caesar, and other two ships of the line, three frigates, and the Hazard sloop of war, about 10 leagues to the north-west of Achill Head and the Stays of Broadhaven, unto which squadron the Fox was attached; we may therefore be in momentary expectation of further glorious news, as there is hardly a chance of their escaping. Copy of a Letter from Captain THOMAS WOLLEY, Commander of his Majesty's ship Arethusa, to EVAN NEPEAN, Esq. dated off Havre, the 24th ult.

I HAVE TO ACQUAINT YOU, for the information of their Lordships, that on the 21st of this month, his Majesty's ship Arethusa, under my command, drove on shore a lugger privateer on the rocks of Cape La Hogue (where the bilged and upset) mounting, as we suppose, about six guns, carrying forty men, and retook a sloop her prize.—We had one man wounded by musquetry from the shore. The Eurydice had chased her from Guernsey, where she had taken the sloop, and joined us in the evening.

I have the honour to be, &c.

JUDICIAL SALE OF LANDS IN ROSS-SHIRE.

To be exposed to public roup and sale, before the Lord Ordinary on the bills, within the New Session-House, Edinburgh, on Wednesday the 21st November 1798, betwixt the hours of four and six afternoon.

THE TOWNS and LANDS of AULTBREA, DRUM-CHORKE, Salmon Fishing thereof, Teansfilen and Blairmore, all lying within the parish of Gerloch and Sheriffdom of Ross, belonging to Captain John Mackenzie of Grunzard.

The total free rental, stock and teind, to which last the proprietor has also right, when taken some time ago, extended, after deducting 4l. 14s. 4d. for the public burdens, to 120l. 17s. 5d. 3-12ths Sterling, which being valued at 25 years purchase the upset price is 202l. 1d. 3-12ths Sterling.

But it is informed, that since the judicial rental was taken, the lands have risen to about 160l. of gross rent; and from their great extent, and local situation in the neighbourhood of the thriving fishing station of Ullapool, established by the British Society, a further considerable increase of rent may be expected, were leases to be given. The lands also extend a considerable way along the sea coast, but no value is put upon the kelp in the above rental.

The articles and conditions of roup, titles, and printed copies of the memorial and abstract of the rental, may be had at the office of Mr Alexander Ross, deputy clerk of session, or of Mr Ross, Esq.

LANDS IN PERTHSHIRE.

To be Sold by public auction, within the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse, on Thursday the 15th day of November next, at 6 o'clock afternoon.

THE LANDS and ESTATE of KINCARDINE, with the extensive Woods thereof, and certain Crofts within the Burgh of Ochterarder, lying in the parishes of Blackford and Ochterarder, and shire of Perth, halfway between Perth and Stirling.

The Lands are of great extent, and capable, as the lands of that vicinity are well known to be, of very great improvement at moderate expence; and there are excellent situations for a mansion-house, and great scope for laying out pleasure ground.

The present rent is about 400l. and the leases expire at 1802.

It affords a freehold qualification in the county.

The title-deeds, rentals, and leases are in the hands of Mr Campbell, St James's Square, to whom any offer for a private bargain, previous to the day of Sale, may be sent.

LANDS IN DUMFRIES-SHIRE AND GALLOWAY.

To be peremptorily Sold by public roup, within the Royal Exchange Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, on Wednesday the 25th day of November 1798, betwixt the hours of 2 and 4 afternoon.

THE ESTATE of KIRKMICHAEL, lying in the parish of Kirkmichael and county of Dumfries, of nearly 1200l. of present yearly rent.

This estate is very extensive, and contains natural woods and plantations of great value; the farm houses are mostly new, and the farms being capable of much improvement, must yield considerable rises of rent on the expiry of the leases. It is held of the Crown, affords a freehold qualification, and possesses many other advantages.

2. THE LANDS of GLENKINS, BLACKCLEUGH, and LAMPHTHS, in the parish of Kirkmichael, and county of Dumfries, forming one of the best store farms in that country; presently rented at 240l. per annum.

3. THE UNDIVIDED-HALF of the LANDS OF CRAIGSHIELD and HOLLIS, of which the present rent is about 200l. per annum; subject to the livery of a gentleman nearly 70 years of age.

All these lands lie contiguous, from eight to ten miles from the town of Dumfries; and will be sold together or separately, as purchasers incline.

4. The LANDS of WOLFGILL, HERRIES'S PARKS, and CARTAGENA, in the parish of Dumfries, and within half a mile of the town, beautifully situated, and paying 230l. of yearly rent.

5. The LANDS of AUCHINGIBBERT, in the parish of Urr and stewartry of Kirkcudbright, about nine miles from Dumfries, presently rented at 1l. 18s.

These are thriving young plantations on these lands; and as the new turnpike road passes through them, their value must be greatly increased.

6. The LANDS of KEMBLETON, with the Mills, lying in the parish of Twynholm, and stewartry of Kirkcudbright, within a mile of the town of Kirkcudbright, having a commodious harbour on the lands themselves, at which vessels of 100 tons may unload. They afford a Freehold Qualification in the stewartry; the mills were lately erected, and are well situated both for home and export trade. The present yearly rent of the estate is only 250l. but the current leases very soon expire, and offers have already been made of much higher rents.

For further particulars apply to William Bushby, Esq. Great Cumberland Place, London; John Bradby, Esq. Sheriff Clerk, Dumfries; or Alexander Young, writer to the signet, in whose hands may be seen the articles of roup, title deeds, and leases.
